

.....exploring an appropriate model for missional engagement for 2020 and beyond.

If you are a parent you are already the hero in someone's life

Most of us can realistically only maintain a limited number of relationships – maybe 150 made up of

- 5 intimate family and friends
- 15 close friends
- 50 in your active network
- 150 acquaintances

In which circle are my playgroup families?

What does this tell me about my ability to have an influence in their lives?

Mat spoke of Jesus' intentional ministry in the lives of his closest followers, giving them a front row seat and a back stage pass into his ministry. He invited them to "come and see" John 1:35 - 51

E.g. Mat, himself an atheist at the time, was invited by his friend, now wife, to help her in ministry among 15-25 year olds thus providing a 'front row seat and back stage pass' into her life and work and through which he came to faith.
